

Disneyland® Paris is recruiting in Athens on 15th and 16th November 2016!

Applications are now open!

Disneyland® Paris, Europe's no.1 tourist destination, recruits students throughout the year for a variety of seasonal contracts.

During this year's Casting Tour we'll be recruiting in Athens, offering seasonal contracts for the following roles:

- Theme Park Host & Hostesses: Attractions Hosts/Hostesses, Guest Relations and Ticketing Hosts/Hostesses
- Food & Beverage: Waitresses/waiters, Commis chefs
- Sales: Shop Assistants: Merchandise Host/ Hostesses
- Hospitality: Front Office Host/ Hostesses

We recruit for different periods of the year, with contracts lasting from 2 weeks to 2 months:

- Christmas: 2 weeks in December- January
- Winter: 2 weeks in February
- Spring: 2 weeks to 1 month in April
- Summer: 2 months in July – August or more

For these contracts, all 35-hour per week, it's necessary to be flexible with hours (shifts could begin at 6am or finish at 2am) as well as being available to work during the weekend.

There are accommodation possibilities for employees who live outside the Paris region and, as spaces are limited, they will be offered on a first-come first-served basis (terms & conditions apply).

How to apply: Candidates need to apply before 7th November 2016 via our website <http://disneylandparis-casting.com/en/casting-tour/greece> . (Please ensure you select the option "University/ School" in the candidate source menu).

Why Disneyland Paris?

Working at Disneyland Paris offers the opportunity to gain a professional experience in a unique and multicultural environment, as well as the chance to practise your languages (20 languages are spoken amongst our 15,000 Cast Members).

The profiles we're looking for:

To offer our Guests the best possible experience, our applicants must:

- ✓ Have an excellent sense of service, great communication and people skills, as well as rigor and respect for procedure.
- ✓ Be comfortable working in French and English - a third European language is a plus. (Language levels vary according to the post and will be assessed during the interview by a recruiter).

Wishing you a fantastic day and hoping to meet you soon!

The Disneyland Paris Recruitment Team

Disneyland Paris

Disneyland Paris
Careers

Disneyland Paris

@Disney_Emploi